First Argument

An ache like a seed caught in teeth, acrid aftertaste of unripe fruit;

astonishment. That is not what I meant. Sudden drop of a gaze, new heaviness. Where are you going? Strange entrapment within skin, like the tree-gum that had to be cut from Eve's hair. I just didn't hear you.

The twitch of a brow.
She remembers the bitterness of a beetle crunched

accidentally, hidden in the spinach;
she remembers
the first rasp of ivy rash on the wrist.

Look at me when I'm talking. Heart pounding in her ears. A shoulder shrugs away from a hand. Skin is not just for pleasure; it can chafe. She is learning what a weed is,

and what it does.
