Our Lady of the Unicorn Blanket-Cape

O, Mythical Daughter, Story-Seeker, Herald of Imagination and Reverie— May your frayed and faded mantle burden you with comfort and abundance— May it swaddle your dreams, nuzzling their shadows into pastures of promise and grace, boldness and prophecy— May you ride your fledgling magic through faith's raucous halls, through life's ribbing, sneering we-all-fall-down— May the pebbles you've pocketed on your promenade to school light your saga like talismans, like oracles— May you throw them at Sophia's vaulted windows and may those windows wing themselves toward the sound of your seeking, of your cape's insistent pawing in the wind—
