To Our Readers
BYU Studies publishes scholarship informed by the restored gospel of Jesus Christ. We exist to inspire learning “by study and also by faith” (D&C 88:118) in three primary constituencies:

- Educated nonspecialist readers/subscribers
- Scholars whose work merits publication in a venue committed to both revealed and discovered truth
- Students who gain experiential learning while making vital contributions
ARTICLES

4  In Memoriam, Orrin Glenn Hatch (1934–2022)

5  Gold, Silver, and Grain: Money and Prices in the Book of Mormon
    Shinji Takagi

31 The Orchid and the Missile: Reflections on the MX
    Paul Alan Cox

51 Religion and Sexual Orientation as Predictors of Utah Youth Suicidality
    W. Justin Dyer, Michael A. Goodman, and David S. Wood

105 Prophets, Pagans, and Papyri:
    The Jews of Greco-Roman Egypt and the Transmission of the Book of Abraham
    Stephen O. Smoot and Kerry Muhlestein

135 Oracles of God:
    A New Digital Collection of Significant Prophetic Documents
    Ryan S. Gardner

139 Covenant Language in Biblical Religions and the Book of Mormon
    Noel B. Reynolds