Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer

Rudolph was born with a unique feature: a red nose. To avoid being different, he tries to hide his shiny trait. Despite his attempts to make friends and join the other reindeer, he goes on a journey to discover who he is. He meets new friends along the way and ends up on an island filled with toys, who like Rudolph have unique features about them. When Rudolph finds himself he is able to help save the day with his nose.

This edition of Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer is a large board book, making it perfect for toddler-aged children. Everyone will recognize this familiar, lovable story with its beautiful illustrations and classic story-line. It is perfect for story-time or a quiet read. Those looking to read about Rudolph rather than watch him will be satisfied with this story.
