INTRODUCTION

Justification and Purpose of This Study

The purpose of this study is to determine and present the Book of Mormon's contributions as a witness to the authenticity of the New Testament account of certain events of Christ's life, in order that teachers may have an effective instrument in teaching the historicity of the New Testament account of Christ's life.

It is well known that the importance of Christ's life is being lost in the Christian world, when, above all, Christian people and churches should be preserving and promulgating the divine mission of Jesus Christ. Many Christians and their ministers do not believe that Jesus was really the Son of God. Many of the miracles and great historical events of Christ's life as recorded in the New Testament are being questioned and are said to have been stories made up about Jesus after He was dead.\(^1\) It is being taught that Jesus was made a God by His followers and believers after His death and that He was not divine,\(^2\) and He was not resurrected.

The following quotation from a world-renowned religious leader and scholar is an example of the disbelief in the divinity of Jesus Christ and a disbelief of certain historical events of His life as recorded in the New Testament.

It was in 1945, we now know, that the secret caves of the great Essene library, miscalled the "Dead Sea Scrolls," were accidently discovered by Bedouin nomads in the wady Qumram, about fourteen miles from Jerusalem. Since then, enough of the rolled leather and copper cylinders, and the tens of thousands of fragments of hundreds of manuscripts, have been deciphered and translated for the scholars and theologians to know, even if the American lay public does not, that the proven Mother of Christianity was the splinter Jewish sect sometimes called Essenes.3

Professor Kennard has worked for twenty years on the problem of "The Burial of Jesus" and has had the help of several eminent scholars in weighing and evaluating the contradictory and confused Gospel and Pauline stories. His considered opinion after this careful and exhaustive research and study is that "in the light of these facts and probabilities," liberal scholars have been too hasty in rejecting the empty tomb stories, and even though those stories did get assimilated to the resurrection visions, we do not have to think the empty tomb was an inference from the visions. So he concludes his long study with the statement: "Thus when Jews spread abroad the story that the disciples of Jesus had 'stolen' the body, they spoke the truth."4

He demonstrated truth, he incarnated righteousness; but that did not prove he was a supernatural being. It is Jesus the Man who understood men, whom men want to know and have always wanted to know. And the Scrolls from the Salty Sea fascinate us because they may throw some light on what he studied and thought and what his radiant personality really was before the theologians made a god out of him.5

The discoveries are continuing on the shores of the Salty Sea . . . But we already have enough data to show that the Scrolls are really "God's Gift to the Humanists," for every unrolling reveals further indications that Jesus was, as he said, "The Son of Man," rather than the deity "Son of God" his followers later claimed.6

4Ibid., 135. 5Ibid., 145. 6Ibid., 155.
As stated above, many scholars, ministers and lay Christian members are beginning to take the view just quoted. It is beyond the scope of this study to evaluate the criticism of the New Testament history, but only brought to attention at this point to show the need for additional evidence of the historicity of the New Testament story.

Research Design

The first step in this study was to read the Book of Mormon and record every reference to New Testament events and characters related to Christ's life.

The second step (Section A) was to correlate these Book of Mormon references with corresponding New Testament references.

The third step (Section B) was to categorize the Book of Mormon passages according to the major periods in Christ's life.

The fourth step (Section C) was to list under each major period of Christ's life the contributions the Book of Mormon has made to the corroboration of New Testament history.

Limitations of the Study

1. No doctrinal comparison has been made, except as it has related to a historical event.

2. There has been no attempt made to show how the Book of Mormon may clarify a passage from the New Testament, except as it may relate to a historical event.

3. The Bible used in this study is the Authorized King James Version.

BOOK OF MORMON PASSAGES THAT REFER TO NEW TESTAMENT
EVENTS OF CHRIST'S LIFE

This chapter contains the Book of Mormon passages that refer to New Testament events of Christ's life and characters mentioned in collection with His life.

The passages are listed in chronological order on the left-hand side of the page, according to the order found in the Book of Mormon.

To the right of each Book of Mormon passage one or more New Testament passage is quoted where applicable. Also, there are other
New Testament scriptural references given that are related to the Book of Mormon passage. The key words or ideas in the Book of Mormon passages are either underlined, numbered or both, where applicable.

The key to the abbreviations preceding New Testament references is as follows:

And the angel said unto me: Behold one of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

Behold, he shall see and write the remainder of these things; yea, and also many things which have been.

And he shall also write concerning the end of the world.

Wherefore, the things which he shall write are just and true; and behold they are written in the book which thou behold proceeding out of the mouth of the Jew; and at the time they proceeded out of the mouth of the Jew, or, at the time the book proceeded out of the mouth of the Jew, the things which were written were plain and pure, and most precious and easy to the understanding of all men.

   And behold, the things which this apostle of the Lamb shall write are many things which thou hast seen;
and behold, the remainder shalt thou see.
   But the things which thou shalt see hereafter thou shalt not write; for the Lord God hath ordained the apostle of the Lamb of God that he should write them.
   And also others who have been, to them hath he shown all things, and they have written them; and they are sealed up to come forth in their purity, according to the truth which is in the Lamb, in the own due time of the Lord, unto the house of Israel.
   And I, Nephi, heard and bear record, that the name of the apostle of the Lamb was John, according to the word of the angel.

remnant of our seed.

   JOHN 1:41. . . . We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.
23. I NEPHI 19:10. And the God of our fathers, who were led out of Egypt, out of bondage, and also were preserved in the wilderness by him, yea, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, yieldeth himself, according to the words of the angel, as a man into the hands of wicked men, to be lifted up, according to the words of Zenock, and to be crucified, according to the words of Neum and to be buried in a sepulchre according to the words of Zenos, which he spake concerning the three days of darkness, which should be a sign given of his death unto those who should inhabit the isles of the sea, more especially given unto those who are of the house of Israel.

1 MATTHEW 27:26. Then released he Barabas unto them; and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

s.w. LUKE 23:53,55.
s.w. JOHN 19:41,42.

24. I NEPHI 19:11. For thus spake the prophet: The Lord God surely shall visit all the house of Israel at that day, some with his voice, because of their righteousness, unto their great joy and salvation, and others with the thunderings and the lighnings of his power, by tempest, by fire, and by smoke, and vapor of darkness, and by the opening of the earth, and by mountains which shall be carried up.

25. I NEPHI 22:20-21. . . . A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you, like unto me Moses; him shall ye hear in all things . . .

. . . This prophet of whom Moses spake was the Holy One of Israel; wherefore he shall execute judgment in righteousness.

JOHN 8:16. And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.
26. II NEPHI 2:3-4. Wherefore, thy soul shall be blessed, and thou shalt dwell safely with thy brother, Nephi, and thy days shall be spent in the service of thy God. Wherefore, I know that thou art redeemed, because of the righteousness of thy Redeemer; for thou hast beheld that in the fulness of time he cometh to bring salvation unto men.

And thou hast beheld in thy youth his glory; wherefore, thou art blessed even as they unto whom he shall minister in the flesh; for the Spirit is the same, yesterday, today, and forever. And the way is prepared from the fall of man, and salvation is free.

GALATIANS 4:4. But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law.

JOHN 1:14. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

27. II NEPHI 2:8. Wherefore, how great the importance to make these things known unto the inhabitants of the earth, that they may know that there is no flesh that can dwell in the presence of God, save it be through the merits and mercy, and grace of the Holy Messiah, who layeth down his life according to the flesh, and taketh it again by the power of the Spirit, that he may bring to pass the resurrection of the dead, being the first that should rise.

1JOHN 10:15. As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

2JOHN 11:25. Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live.

31 CORINTHIANS 15:20,23. But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept. But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

p. REVELATION 1:5.
28. II NEPHI 2:26. And the Messiah cometh in the fulness of time, that he may redeem the children of men from the fall . . .

GALATIANS 4:4. But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law.

29. II NEPHI 6:9. Nevertheless, the Lord has shown unto me that they should return again. And he also has shown unto me that the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, should manifest himself unto them in the flesh; and after he should manifest himself they should scourge him and crucify him, according to the words of the angel who spake it unto me.

1JOHN 1:14. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

2MATTHEW 27:26. Then released he Barabas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

s.w. MARK 15:15.

s.w. JOHN 19:1, 6.

30. II NEPHI 9:5. Yea, I know that ye know that in the body he shall show himself unto those at Jerusalem, from whence we came; for it is expedient that it should be among them; for it behooveth the great Creator that he suffereth himself to become subject unto man in the flesh, and die for all men, that all men might become subject unto him.

1JOHN 1:14. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

2JOHN 11:50-52. Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation; and not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.
31. II NEPHI 9:21. And he cometh into the world that he may save all men if they will hearken unto his voice; for behold, he suffereth the pains of all men, yea, the pains of every living creature, both men, women, and children, who belong to the family of Adam.

JOHN 3:17-18. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.
   He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

32. II NEPHI 10:3. Wherefore, as I said unto you, it must needs be expedient that Christ— for in the last night the angel spake unto me that this should be his name -- should come among the Jews, among those who are the more wicked part of the world and they shall crucify him— for thus it behooveth our God, and there is none other nation on earth that would crucify their God.

MATTHEW 1:16. And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.
   p. MATT. 1:18,21; 27:22.

2 ACTS 2:23. Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain.
   p. MATT. 27:24-25; 27:3; 25:54.

33. II NEPHI 10:5. But, because of priestcrafts and iniquities, they at Jerusalem will stiffen their necks against them, that he be crucified.

MATTHEW 26:3-4. Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas.
   And they consulted that they might take Jesus by subtily, and kill him.

Now the Spirit knoweth all things; nevertheless the Son of God suffereth according to the flesh that he might take upon him the sins of his people, that he might blot out their transgressions according to the power of his deliverance; and now behold this is the testimony which is in me.

1 CORINTHIANS 15:3. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures.

89. ALMA 33:22. If so, we shall come upon you; but if not so, then cast about your eyes and begin to believe in the Son of God, that he will come to redeem his people, and that he shall suffer and die to atone for their sins; and that he shall rise again from the dead, which shall bring to pass the resurrection, that all men shall stand before him, to be judged at the last and judgment day, according to their works.

MARK 8:31. And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

JOHN 1:1-4. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God.

All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

Now, as my mind caught hold upon this thought, I cried within my heart: Jesus, thou Son of God, have mercy on me, who am in the gall of bitterness, and am encircled about by the everlasting chains of death.

2LUKE 1:30-31,35. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.
And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.
And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

95. ALMA 37:10. And who knoweth but what they will be the means of bringing many thousands of them, yea, and also many thousands of our stiffnecked brethren, the Nephites, who are now hardening their hearts in sin and iniquities, to the knowledge of their Redeemer?

LUKE 1:68-69. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people,
And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David.

96. ALMA 39:15. And now, my son, I would say somewhat unto you, concerning the coming of Christ. Behold, I say unto you, that it is he that surely shall come to take away the sins of the world; yea, he cometh to declare glad tidings of salvation unto his people.

LUKE 8:1. And it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God; and the twelve were with him.

97. ALMA 40:2. Behold, I say unto you, that there is no resurrection -- or I would say, in other words, that this mortal does not put on immortality, this corruption does not put on incorruption -- until after the coming of Christ.

ACTS 26:23. That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

98. ALMA 40:16,18. And behold, again it hath been spoken, that there is a first resurrection, a resurrection of all those who have been, or who are, or who shall be, down to the resurrection of Christ from the dead.

Behold, I say unto you, Nay; but it meaneth the reuniting of the soul with the body, of those from the days of Adam down to the resurrection of Christ.

99. ALMA 40:19-20. . . . their resurrection cometh to pass before the resurrection of those who die after the resurrection of Christ.

Now, my son, I do not say that their resurrection cometh at the resurrection of Christ; but behold, I give it as my opinion, that the souls and the bodies are reunited, of the righteous, at the resurrection of Christ, and his ascension into heaven.

100. ALMA 42:15. And now, the plan of mercy could not be brought about except an atonement should be made; therefore God himself atoneth for the sins of the world, to bring about the plan of mercy, to appease the demands of justice, that God might be a perfect, just God, and a merciful God also.

And behold, he said unto them: Behold, I give unto you a sign; for five years more cometh, and behold, then cometh the Son of God to redeem all those who shall believe on his name.

And behold, this will I give unto you for a sign at the time of his coming; for behold, there shall be great lights in heaven, insomuch that in the night before he cometh there shall be no darkness, insomuch that it shall appear unto man as if it was day.

Therefore, there shall be one day and a night and a day, as if it were one day and there were no night; and this shall be unto you a sign: for ye shall know of the rising of the sun and also of its setting; therefore they shall know of a surety that there shall be two days and a night; nevertheless the night shall not be darkened; and it shall be the night before he is born.

And behold, there shall a new star arise, such an one as ye never have beheld; and this, also shall be a sign unto you.

And behold this is not all, there shall be many signs and wonders in heaven.

And it shall come to pass that ye shall all be amazed, and wonder, insomuch that ye shall fall to the earth.

And also that ye might know of the coming of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Father of heaven and of earth, the Creator of all things from the beginning; and that ye might know of the signs of his coming, to the intent that ye might believe on his name.

And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

p. MATTHEW 1:18-23.
111. HELAMAN 14:14-17. And behold, again, another sign I give unto you, yea, a sign of his death.

For behold, he surely must die that salvation may come; yea, it behooveth him and becometh expedient that he dieth, to bring to pass the resurrection of the dead, that thereby men may be brought into the presence of the Lord.

Yea, behold, this death bringeth to pass the resurrection, and redeemeth all mankind from the first death -- that spiritual death; for all mankind, by the fall of Adam being cut off from the presence of the Lord, are considered as dead, both as to things temporal and to things spiritual.

But behold, the resurrection of Christ redeemeth mankind, yea, even all mankind, and bringeth them back into the presence of the Lord.

And it came to pass that the multitude went forth, and thrust their hands into his side, and did feel the prints of the nails in his hands and in his feet; and this they did do, going forth one by one until they had all gone forth, and did see with their eyes and did feel with their hands, and did know of a surety and did bear

III NEPHI 15:16-18, 21. This much did the Father command me, that I should tell unto them:

That other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

And now, because of stiffneckedness and unbelief they understood not my word; therefore I was commanded to say no more of the Father concerning this thing unto them.

And verily I say unto you, that ye are they of whom I said: Other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

III NEPHI 16:1-3. And verily, verily, I say unto you that I have other sheep which are not of this land, neither of the land of Jerusalem, neither in any parts of that land round about whither I have been to minister.

For they of whom I speak are they who have not as yet heard my voice; neither have I at any time manifested myself unto them.

But I have received a commandment of the Father that I shall go unto them, and that they shall hear my voice, and shall be numbered among my sheep, that there may be one fold and one shepherd; therefore I go to show myself unto them.

III NEPHI 18:1-12. And it came to pass that Jesus commanded his disciples that they should bring forth some bread and wine unto him.

And while they were gone for bread and wine he commanded the multitude that they should sit themselves down upon the earth.

And when the disciples had come with bread and wine, he took of the bread and brake and blessed it; and he gave unto the disciples and commanded that they should eat.

And when they had eaten and were filled, he commanded that they should give unto the multitude.

And when the multitude had eaten and were filled, he said unto the disciples: Behold there shall one be ordained among you, and to him will I give power that he shall break bread and bless it and give it unto the people of my church, unto all those who shall believe and be baptized in my name.

And this shall ye always observe to do, even as I have done, even as I have broken bread and blessed it and given it unto you.

And this shall ye do in remembrance of my body, which I have shown unto you. And it shall be a testimony unto the Father that ye do always remember me. And if ye do always remember me ye shall have my Spirit to be with you.

And it came to pass that when he said these words, he commanded his disciples that they should take of the wine of the cup and drink of it, and that they should also give unto the multitude that they might drink of it.

And it came to pass that they did so, and did drink of it and were filled; and they

148. IV NEPHI 1:3. And it came to pass that the thirty and fourth year passed away, and also the thirty and fifth, and behold the disciples of Jesus had formed a church of Christ in all the lands round about. And as many as did come unto them, and did truly repent of their sins, were baptized in the name of Jesus; and they did also receive the Holy Ghost. And they had all things common among them; therefore there were not rich and poor, bond and free, but they were all made free, and partakers of the heavenly gift.

150. IV NEPHI 12. And they did not walk any more after the performances and ordinances of the law of Moses; but they did walk after the commandments which they had received from their Lord and their God, continuing in fasting and prayer, and in meeting together oft both to pray and to hear the word of the Lord.

151. IV NEPHI 21. And it came to pass that Amos died also, (and it was an hundred and ninety and four years from the coming of Christ) and his son Amos kept the record in his stead; and he also kept it upon the plates of Nephi; and it was also written in the book of Nephi, which is this book.

152. IV NEPHI 30-31. LUKE 6:13. And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles.

155. MORMON 3:21. And also that ye may believe the gospel of Jesus Christ, which ye shall have among you; and also that the Jews, the covenant people of the Lord, shall have other witness besides him whom they saw and heard, that Jesus, whom they slew, was the very Christ and the very God.

156. MORMON 5:14. And behold, they shall go unto the unbelieving of the Jews: and for this intent shall they go — that they may be persuaded that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God; that the Father may bring about, through his most Beloved, his great and eternal purpose, in restoring the Jews, or all the house of Israel, to the land of their inheritance, which the Lord their God hath given them, unto the fulfilling of his covenant.

CHAPTER II

PRE-EXISTENCE OF JESUS CHRIST AND HIS ANTICIPATED COMING

The historicity of the pre-existence and foreordination of Jesus Christ as told in the Bible is a well-witnessed fact by the writers of the Book of Mormon. Some of the contributions the Book of Mormon makes testify of Jesus Christ's foreplanned coming in the fulness of time: that He would be the Messiah or Savior of the world; that He would take upon Himself flesh and minister in the flesh; that He was a God and Creator of all things in the beginning; that He was Christ -- that His name would be Jesus Christ; that He would be the Son of God in the flesh; and that He would be the Only Begotten Son.

The Book of Mormon tells us that such Old Testament prophets as Abraham and Moses looked forward to His coming and understood the importance of His mission to save us.

One of the last and greatest testimonies the Book of Mormon people give is that the promised Messiah has come, for they saw Him; and He came to them and told them He had come among His own, and had been crucified and resurrected.

The concept of the pre-existence of Jesus properly understood as taught in the Bible and Book of Mormon refutes the theory that Jesus is a god made by man.
1. I NEPHI 10:4. Yea, even six hundred years from the time that my father left Jerusalem, a prophet would the Lord God raise up among the Jews — even a Messiah, or, in other words, a Savior of the world.

2. I NEPHI 10:17. ... And the Son of God was the Messiah who should come.

3. I NEPHI 22:20-21. ... A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto me; him shall ye hear in all things ... This prophet of whom Moses spake was the Holy One of Israel; wherefore he shall execute judgment in righteousness.

4. II NEPHI 2:3-4. Wherefore, thy soul shall be blessed, and thou shalt dwell safely with thy brother, Nephi, and thy days shall be spent in the service of thy God. Wherefore, I know that thou art redeemed, because of the righteousness of thy Redeemer; for thou hast beheld that in the fulness of time he cometh to bring salvation unto men.

   And thou hast beheld in thy youth his glory; wherefore, thou art blessed even as they unto whom he shall minister in the flesh; for the Spirit is the same, yesterday, today, and forever.

GALATIANS 4:4.  But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law.

8.  II NEPHI 25:19.  For according to the words of the prophets, the Messiah cometh in six hundred years from the time that my father left Jerusalem; and according to the words of the prophets, and also the word of the angel of God, his name shall be Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

CHAPTER III

BIRTH OF JESUS CHRIST, THE SON OF GOD

The account of the birth of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, as recorded in the New Testament is well authenticated by visions and signs given to the Book of Mormon prophets and people.

Nephi saw in vision the city Nazareth, and in it a beautiful virgin who would be chosen to be the mother of the Son of God. He saw this beautiful and fair virgin carried away in the spirit; and he saw her bearing a child in her arms. The angel told Nephi that the baby was the Lamb of God, the Son of the Eternal Father.

King Benjamin and others testified that Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was to be born, and His mother would be called Mary.

The Book of Mormon prophets testified that the good news of His birth would be proclaimed by angels. The Book of Mormon people were given a special sign, that they might know of the birth of Jesus; viz., there would be a day and a night and a day when there would be no darkness as if it had been all one day. They also saw a new star as a sign of His birth.

The repeated testimony in the Book of Mormon is that Jesus is the Son of God in the flesh.
1. I NEPHI 11:13-15,18-21.

And it came to pass that I looked and beheld the great city of Jerusalem, and also other cities. And I beheld the city of Nazareth; and in the city of Nazareth I beheld a virgin, and she was exceedingly fair and white.

And it came to pass that I saw the heavens open; and an angel came down and stood before me: Nephi, what beholdest thou?

And I said unto him: A virgin, most beautiful and fair above all other virgins.

And he said unto me:

Behold, the virgin whom thou seest is the mother of the Son of God, after the manner of the flesh.

And it came to pass that I beheld that she was carried away in the Spirit; and after she had been carried away for the space of a time the angel spake unto me, saying: Look!

And I looked and beheld the virgin again, bearing a child in her arms.

And the angel said unto me: Behold the Lamb of God, yea, even the Son of the Eternal Father! Knowest thou the meaning of the tree which thy father saw?

2. I NEPHI 15:13. . . . and many generations after the Messiah shall be manifested in body unto the children of men, then shall the fulness of the gospel of the Messiah come unto the Gentiles, and from the Gentiles unto the remnant of our seed.

LUKE 1:26-27,35. And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,

To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

JOHN 1:41. . . . We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.

p. JOHN 4:25-26.
3. II NEPHI 17:14. Therefore, the Lord himself shall give you a sign -- Behold a virgin shall conceive, and shall bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

4. MOSIAH 3:2-3. And the things which I shall tell you are made known unto me by an angel from God. And he said unto me: Awake; and I awoke, and behold he stood before me.
   And he said unto me: Awake, and hear the words which I shall tell thee; for behold, I am come to declare unto you the glad tidings of great joy.

5. MOSIAH 3:8. And he shall be called Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Father of heaven and earth, the creator of all things from the beginning; and his mother shall be called Mary.

MATTHEW 1:23. Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

   p. LUKE 1:26-31.

LUKE 2:10. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

LUKE 1:30-35. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary; for thou hast found favour with God.
   And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:
   And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.
   Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?
   And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

And because he dwelleth in flesh he shall be called the Son of God, and having subjected the flesh to the will of the Father, being the Father and the Son --

JOHN 1:1-3,14. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God.

All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

LUKE 1:35. And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

7. ALMA 7:10. And behold, he shall be born of Mary, at Jerusalem which is the land of our forefathers, she being a virgin, a precious and chosen vessel, who shall be overshadowed and conceive by the power of the Holy Ghost, and bring forth a son, yea, even the Son of God.

LUKE 1:26-35. And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,

To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.

And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David.

And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

8. ALMA 13:24,25. For behold, angels are declaring it unto many at this time in our land: and this is for the purpose of preparing the hearts of the children of men to receive his word at the time of his coming in his glory.

And now we only wait to hear the joyful news declared unto us by the mouth of angels, of his coming; for the time cometh, we know not how soon. Would to God that it might be in my day; but let it be sooner or later, in it I will rejoice.

LUKE 2:9-11. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

MATTHEW 1:18,21. Now the birth of Jesus was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

mighty winds, yea, his shafts

all his hail and his mighty shall have no power over you to drag you down to the gulf of misery and endless wo, because of the rock upon which ye are built, which is a sure foundation, a foundation whereon if men build they cannot fall.

CHAPTER IV
MINISTRY OF JESUS CHRIST

The Book of Mormon prophets testify by visions and other revelations of the ministry of Jesus Christ. They testified that He would be baptized by a prophet who would prepare the way for Him, and that this same prophet would testify that Jesus was the promised Messiah, the Son of God. They knew the Holy Ghost would descend upon Him and that He would choose twelve apostles. They prophesied of His going forth teaching the people, of the many who fell down at His feet and worshipped Him, and of the many miracles He performed among His people, healing their sick, casting out devils and unclean spirits.

The resurrected Jesus Christ came to the Book of Mormon people and ministered unto them. He taught them; healed their sick, gave His authority to teach, baptize, and give the Holy Ghost; and He bore witness Himself of His ministry among the Jews.
1. I NEPHI 1:9-11. And it came to pass that he saw one descending out of the midst of heaven, and he beheld that his luster was above that of the sun at noon-day.
   And he also saw twelve others following him, and their brightness did exceed that of the stars in the firmament.

2. I NEPHI 10:7-8. And he spake also concerning a prophet who should come before the Messiah, to prepare the way of the Lord —
   Yea, even he should go forth and cry in the wilderness: Prepare ye the way of the Lord, and make his paths straight . . .

3. I NEPHI 10:8. . . . for there standeth one among you whom ye know not; and he is mightier than I, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose. And much spake my father concerning this thing.

4. I NEPHI 10:9-10. And my father said he should baptize in Bethabara, beyond Jordan; and he also said he should baptize with water; even that he should baptize the Messiah with water.

This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending like a dove, and it abode upon him.

And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

   Behold, he shall see and write the remainder of these things; yea, and also many things which have been.
   And he shall also write concerning the end of the world.
   Wherefore, the things which he shall write are just and true; and behold they are written in the book which thou beheld proceeding out of the mouth of the Jew; and at the time they proceeded out of the mouth of the Jew, or, at the time the book proceeded out of the mouth of the Jew, the things which were written were plain and pure, and most precious and easy to the understanding of all men.
   And behold, the things which this apostle of the Lamb shall write are many things which thou hast seen; and behold, the remainder shalt thou see.
   But the things which thou shalt see hereafter thou shalt not write; for the Lord God hath ordained the apostle of the Lamb of God that he should write them.
   And also others who have been, to them hath he shown all things, and they have written them; and they are sealed up to come forth in their purity, according to the truth which is in the Lamb, in the own due time of the Lord, unto the house of Israel.
   And I, Nephi, heard and bear record, that the name of the apostle of the Lamb was John, according to the word of the angel.

REVELATION 1:1-2. The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to show unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:
   Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

15.  II NEPHI 9:21. And he cometh into the world that he may save all men if they will hearken unto his voice; for behold, he suffereth the pains of all men, yea, the pains of every living creature, both men, women, and children, who belong to the family of Adam.

JOHN 3:17-18. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

16.  II NEPHI 31:4. Wherefore, I would that ye should remember that I have spoken unto you concerning that prophet which the Lord showed unto me, that should baptize the Lamb of God, which should take away the sins of the world.

And he shall cast out devils, or the evil spirits which dwell in the hearts of the children of men.

1 JOHN 1:1-4,14. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God.

All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

19. MOSIAH 13:33-34. For behold, did not Moses prophesy unto them concerning the coming of the Messiah, and that God should redeem his people? Yea, and even all the prophets who have prophesied ever since the world began -- have they not spoken more or less concerning these things?

Have they not said that God himself should come down among the children of men, and take upon him the form of man, and go forth in mighty power upon the face of the earth?

ACTS 3:19-21. Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

22. ALMA 7:7-8. For behold, I say unto you there be many things to come; and behold, there is one thing which is of more importance than they all--for behold, the time is not far distant that the Redeemer liveth and cometh among his people.
   Behold, I do not say that he will come among us at the time of his dwelling in his mortal tabernacle; for behold, the Spirit hath not said unto me that this should be the case. Now as to this thing I do not know; but this much I do know, that the Lord God hath power to do all things which are according to his word.

LUKE 3:15-17. And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not;
   John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire:

MATTHEW 3:1-3. In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea,

25. Alma 9:25-27. . . . Repent ye, for the kingdom of heaven is nigh at hand.

And not many days hence the Son of God shall come in his glory; and his glory shall be the glory of the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace, equity, and truth, full of patience, mercy, and long-suffering, quick to hear the cries of his people and to answer their prayers.

And behold, he cometh to redeem those who will be baptized unto repentance, through faith on his name.

And it came to pass that Nephi -- having been visited by angels and also the voice of the Lord, therefore having seen angels, and being eye-witness, and having had power given unto him that he might know concerning the ministry of Christ, and also being eye-witness to their quick return from righteousness unto their wickedness and abominations;

LUKE 3:21-23. Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,

And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

And Jesus himself began to be about thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) the son of Joseph, which was the son of Helam.

27. III NEPHI 7:19-20. And in the name of Jesus did he cast out devils and unclean spirits; and even his brother did he raise from the dead, after he had been stoned and suffered death by the people.

And the people saw it, and did witness of it, and were angry with him because of his power; and he did also do many more miracles, in the sight of the people, in the name of Jesus.

And while they were gone for bread and wine, he commanded the multitude that they should sit themselves down upon the earth.

And when the disciples had come with bread and wine, he took of the bread and brake and blessed it; and he gave unto the disciples and commanded that they should eat.

And when they had eaten and were filled, he commanded that they should give unto the multitude.

And when the multitude had eaten and were filled, he said unto the disciples: Behold there shall one be ordained among you, and to him will I give power that he shall break bread and bless it and give it unto the people of my church, unto all those who shall believe and be baptized in my name.

MATTHEW 26:26-29. And as they were eating, Jesus took bread and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

And it came to pass that when he said these words, he commanded his disciples that they should take of the wine of the cup and drink of it, and that they should also give unto the multitude that they might drink of it.

And it came to pass that they did so, and did drink of it and were filled; and they gave unto the multitude, and they did drink, and they were filled.

And when the disciples had done this, Jesus said unto them: Blessed are ye for this thing which ye have done, for this is fulfilling my commandments, and this doth witness unto the Father that ye are willing to do that which I have commanded you.

And this shall ye always do to those who repent and are baptized in my name; and ye shall do it in remembrance for my blood, which I have shed for you, that ye may witness unto the Father that ye do always remember me. And if ye do always remember me ye shall have my Spirit to be with you.

And I give unto you a commandment that ye shall do these things. And if ye shall always do these things blessed are ye for ye are built upon my rock.
32. III NEPHI 19:35. And it came to pass that when Jesus had made an end of praying, he came again to the disciples, and said unto them: So great faith have I never seen among all the Jews; wherefore I could not show unto them so great miracles, because of their unbelief.

35. IV NEPHI 1,3. And it came to pass that the thirty and fourth year passed away, and also the thirty and fifth, and behold the disciples of Jesus had formed a church of Christ in all the lands round about. And as many as did come unto them, and did truly repent of their sins, were baptized in the name of Jesus; and they did also receive the Holy Ghost. And they had all things common among them; therefore there were not rich and poor, bond and free, but they were all made free, and partakers of the heavenly gift.

And they did not walk any more after the performances and ordinances of the law of Moses; but they did walk after the commandments which they had received from their Lord and their God, continuing in fasting and prayer, and in meeting together oft both to pray and to hear the word of the Lord.

ACTS 2:41-42. Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

And they continued, stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

CHAPTER V

TRIALS, SUFFERING, DEATH AND RESURRECTION OF JESUS CHRIST

The resurrection of Jesus Christ as a reality is being questioned greatly by the critics, as pointed out in the Introduction. To prove the resurrection a fact would substantiate that Jesus Christ is the Messiah, the God of this earth, and the literal Son of the Eternal Father.

The historicity of the New Testament account of Jesus Christ's resurrection is well attested in the Book of Mormon. This is witnessed not only by the prophets, but by thousands of Book of Mormon people who saw the resurrected Jesus Christ ascend out of heaven and come down among them. They heard the voice of God declare, "Behold, my Beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased, in whom I have glorified my name -- hear ye him." (III Nephi 11:7) Each one went forth and felt the wound in His side and the prints of the nails in His hands, and saw with his own eyes and knew that it was He whom the prophets had said should come. They all fell down at the feet of Jesus and worshipped Him.

Jesus Himself testified to them saying: "Behold, I am Jesus Christ whom the prophets testified shall come into the world."

(III Nephi 11:10)
1. I NEPHI 11:32. And it came to pass that the angel spake unto me again, saying: Look! And I looked and beheld the Lamb of God, that he was taken by the people; yea, the Son of the everlasting God was judged of the world; and I saw and bear record.

2. I NEPHI 11:33. And I, Nephi, saw that he was lifted up upon the cross and slain for the sins of the world.

3. I NEPHI 11:34-35. And after he was slain I saw the multitudes of the earth, that they were gathered together to fight against the apostles of the Lamb; for thus were the twelve called by the angel of the Lord.

4. I NEPHI 12:4. And it came to pass that I saw a mist of darkness on the face of the land of promise; . . .

And the God of our fathers, who were led out of Egypt, out of bondage, and also were preserved in the wilderness by him, yea, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, yieldeth himself, according to the words of the angel, as a man, into the hands of wicked men, to be lifted up, according to the words of Zenock, and to be crucified, according to the words of Neum and to be buried in a sepulchre, according to the words of Zenos, which he spake concerning the three days of darkness, which should be a sign given of his death unto those who should inhabit the isles of the sea, more especially given unto those who are of the house of Israel.

6. I NEPHI 19:11. For thus spake the prophet: The Lord God surely shall visit all the house of Israel at that day, some with his voice, because of their righteousness, unto their great joy and salvation, and others with the thunderings and the lightnings of his power, by tempest, by fire, and by smoke, and vapor of darkness, and by the opening of the earth, and by mountains which shall be carried up.

7. II NEPHI 2:8. Wherefore, how great the importance to make these things known unto the inhabitants of the earth, that they may know that there is no flesh that can dwell in the presence of God, save it be through the merits, and mercy, and grace of the Holy Messiah, who layeth down his life according to the flesh, and taketh it again by the power of the Spirit, that he may bring to pass the

8. II NEPHI 6:9. Nevertheless, the Lord has shown unto me that they should return again. And he also has shown unto me that the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, should manifest himself in the flesh; and after he should manifest himself they should scourge him and crucify him, according to the words of the angel who spake it unto me.

9. II NEPHI 9:5. Yea, I know that ye know that in the body he shall show himself unto those at Jerusalem, from whence we came; for it is expedient that it should be among them, for it behooveth the great Creator that he suffereth himself to become subject unto man in the flesh, and die for all men, that all men might become subject unto him.

And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.
10. II NEPHI 10:3. Wherefore, as I said unto you, it must needs be expedient that Christ for in the last night the angel spake unto me that this should be his name—should come among the Jews, among those who are the more wicked part of the world; and they shall crucify him— for thus it behoveth our God, and there is none other nation on earth that would crucify their God.

38. HELAMAN 14:14-17. And behold, again, another sign I give unto you, yea, a sign of his death.

For behold, he surely must die that salvation may come; yea, it behooveth him and becometh expedient that he dieth, to bring to pass the resurrection of the dead, that thereby men may be brought into the presence of the Lord.

Yea, behold, this death bringeth to pass the resurrection, and redeemeth all mankind from the first death -- that spiritual death; for all mankind, by the fall of Adam being cut off from the presence of the Lord, are considered as dead, both as to things temporal and to things spiritual.

But behold, the resurrection of Christ redeemeth mankind, yea, even all mankind, and bringeth them back into the presence of the Lord.

47. III NEPHI 11:12. And it came to pass that when Jesus had spoken these words the whole multitude fell to the earth; for they remembered that it had been prophesied among them that Christ should show himself unto them after his ascension into heaven.

JOHN 10:14-16. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

48. III NEPHI 11:13-14. And it came to pass that the Lord spake unto them saying:

Arise and come forth unto me, that ye may thrust your hands into my side, and also that ye may feel the prints of the nails in my hands and in my feet, that ye may know that I am the God of Israel, and the God of the whole earth, and have been slain for the sins of the world.

JOHN 20:24-27. But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.
48. (cont.)

And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach higher thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

p. JOHN 19:34.

49. III NEPHI 11:15-17. And it came to pass that the multitude went forth, and thrust their hands into his side, and did feel the prints of the nails in his hands and in his feet; and this they did do, going forth one by one until they had all gone forth, and did see with their eyes and did feel with their hands, and did know of a surety and did bear record, that it was he, of whom it was written by the prophets, that should come.

And when they had all gone forth and had witnessed for themselves, they did cry out with one accord, saying:

Hosanna! Blessed be the name of the Most High God! And they did fall down at the feet of Jesus, and did worship him.

50. III NEPHI 15:1. And now it came to pass that when Jesus had ended these sayings he cast his eyes round about on the multitude, and said unto them: Behold, ye have heard the things which I taught before I ascended to my Father; therefore, whoso remembereth these sayings of mine and doeth them, him will I raise up at the last day.

JOHN 20:17. Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.

p. ACTS 1:9.
p. MARK 16:19.
III NEPHI 15:16-18, 21. This much did the Father command me, that I should tell unto them:

That other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

And now, because of stiffneckedness and unbelief, they understood not my word; therefore I was commanded to say no more of the Father concerning this thing unto them.

And verily I say unto you, that ye are they of whom I said: Other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

52. III NEPHI 16:1-3. And verily, verily, I say unto you, that I have other sheep which are not of this land, neither of the land of Jerusalem, neither in any parts of that land round about whither I have been to minister.

For they of whom I speak are they who have not as yet heard my voice; neither have I at any time manifested myself unto them.

But I have received a commandment of the Father that I shall go unto them, and that they shall hear my voice, and shall be numbered among my sheep, that there may be one fold and one shepherd; therefore I go to show myself unto them.

MATTHEW 15:24. But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

JOHN 10:16. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.
53. III NEPHI 28:6. And he said unto them: Behold, I know your thoughts, and ye have desired the thing which John, my beloved, who was with me in my ministry, before that I was lifted by the Jews, desired of me.

      JOHN 3:14. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up. p. JOHN 8:28.

54. IV NEPHI 30-31. Therefore they did exercise power and authority over the disciples of Jesus who did tarry with them, and they did cast them into prison; but by the power of the word of God, which was in them, the prisons were rent in twain, and they went forth doing mighty miracles among them.

      Nevertheless, and notwithstanding all these miracles, the people did harden their hearts and did seek to kill them, even as the Jews at Jerusalem sought to kill Jesus, according to his word.

55. MORMON 3:21. And also that ye may believe the gospel of Jesus Christ, which ye shall have among you; and also that the Jews, the covenant people of the Lord, shall have other witness besides him whom they saw and heard, that Jesus, whom they slew, was the very Christ and the very God.

      ACTS 2:36. Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. p. ACTS 2:23; 3:13-15; 4:10.
56. MORMON 6:17-18. O ye fair ones, how could ye have departed from the ways of the Lord! O ye fair ones, how could ye have rejected that Jesus who stood with open arms to receive you?

Behold, if ye had not done this, ye would not have fallen. But behold, ye are fallen, and I mourn your loss.

And he bringeth to pass the resurrection of the dead, whereby man must be raised to stand before his judgment-seat.

Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!

When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto him: for I find no fault in him.

The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.

59. ETHER 3:17. And now, as I, Moroni, said I could not make a full account of these things which are written therefore it sufficeth me to say that Jesus showed himself unto this man in the spirit, even after the manner and in the likeness of the same body even as he showed himself unto the Nephites.
60. Ether 4:1-2. And the Lord commanded the brother of Jared to go down out of the mount from the presence of the Lord, and write the things which he had seen; and they were forbidden to come unto the children of men until after that he should be lifted up upon the cross; and for this cause did king Mosiah keep them, that they should not come unto the world until after Christ should show himself unto his people. And after Christ truly had showed himself unto his people, he commanded that they should be made manifest.

61. Moroni 9:25. My son, be faithful in Christ; and may not the things which I have written grieve thee, to weigh thee down unto death; but may Christ lift thee up, and may his sufferings and death, and the showing his body unto our fathers, and his mercy and long-suffering, and the hope of his glory and of eternal life, rest in your mind forever.

62. Moroni 10:33. And again, if ye by the grace of God are perfect in Christ, and deny not his power, then are ye sanctified in Christ, by the grace of God, through the shedding of the blood of Christ, which is in the covenant of the Father unto the remission of your sins. that ye become holy, without spot.

SECTION C. SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS

CHAPTER VI

SUMMARY OF CONTRIBUTIONS OF THE BOOK OF MORMON

The Book of Mormon's contributions as a witness to the authenticity of the New Testament account of certain events of Christ's life are noteworthy and numerous.

The Book of Mormon claims to have divine origin, stating that it was translated by the Prophet Joseph Smith through the gift and power of God. Upon the Prophet's completion of the translation God testified of the divinity of the book and of its correct translation, and He commanded three witnesses to testify of that fact to the world.\(^7\)

The Book of Mormon writers support the historicity of the New Testament account of Christ's life. This support is in much detail, starting with Jesus being foreordained and chosen before He was born, followed by His birth of a virgin, as the Son of God the Eternal Father.

The Book of Mormon verifies the greatness of Jesus Christ as a man and as divine, and His ministry among the Jews, that He was without sin, was crucified, and the third day, resurrected. The Book of Mormon rejects the ancient and modern philosophy that Jesus' body was stolen, and then stories spread abroad by His followers that He had been resurrected. Thus is rejected the theory that Jesus is a man-made God.

As enlarged upon in Chapter V, He showed Himself not only to many Jews following His resurrection, but He also came to the ancient America where thousands saw Him. These Book of Mormon people heard the voice of God declaring that He whom they saw was His Son who had been crucified and resurrected.

Findings This Study Reveals

1. The writer found 177 passages in the Book of Mormon that refer to the life of Jesus. These passages corroborated the New Testament account of Christ's life. The Book of Mormon passages are in chronological order in Section A, Chapter I.

2. There are 61 Book of Mormon passages that refer to the pre-existence of Jesus Christ and His anticipated coming.

3. There are 25 passages relating to the birth of Jesus Christ and His divinity as the Son of God.

4. There are 43 passages that refer to the ministry of Jesus Christ.

5. There are 62 passages that refer to the trials, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

6. Section C of this study points out 115 different ideas and concepts that the Book of Mormon professes as truths concerning the life of Jesus Christ and related events.

Recommended Studies

This study was limited to the historicity of the life of Jesus. A possible future study could make a doctrinal comparison between the Book of Mormon and the New Testament.

Another possible future study would be to make a comparison of phrasology that is the same or similar in the Book of Mormon and New Testament.

ABSTRACT

The purpose of this study is to determine and present the Book of Mormon's contributions as a witness to the authenticity of the New Testament account of certain events of Christ's life, in order that teachers may have an effective instrument in teaching the historicity of the New Testament account of Christ's life.

This study reveals 177 passages in the Book of Mormon that refer to the life of Jesus. These passages corroborated the New Testament account of Christ's life. There are 61 Book of Mormon passages that refer to the pre-existence of Jesus Christ and His anticipated coming. There are 25 passages relating to the birth of Jesus Christ and His divinity as the Son of God. There are 43 passages that refer to the ministry of Jesus Christ. There are 62 passages referring to the trials, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Section C of this study points out 115 different ideas and concepts that the Book of Mormon professes as truths concerning the life of Jesus Christ and related events.
