

2018

Dino-Christmas

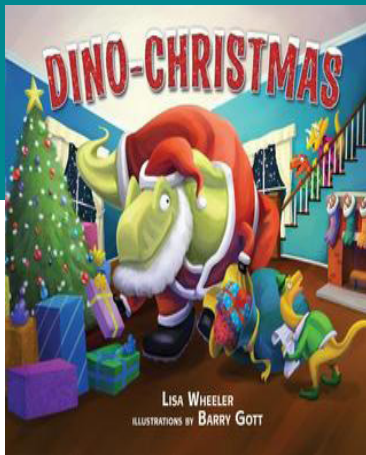

Sdnee Burr

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarsarchive.byu.edu/cbmr>

BYU ScholarsArchive Citation

Burr, Sdnee (2018) "Dino-Christmas," Children's Book and Media Review. Vol. 39 : Iss. 11 , Article 41.
Available at: <https://scholarsarchive.byu.edu/cbmr/vol39/iss11/41>

This Book Review is brought to you for free and open access by the Journals at BYU ScholarsArchive. It has been accepted for inclusion in Children's Book and Media Review by an authorized editor of BYU ScholarsArchive. For more information, please contact scholarsarchive@byu.edu, ellen_amatangelo@byu.edu.

Book Review

Dino-Christmas

As autumn leaves turn to whirls of snow, all the dinosaurs are full of Christmas cheer. Snowball fights ensue, snow angels shimmer, and ice skates adorn dinosaur feet. There's hot cocoa, sugar cookies, festive decorations, and mistletoe. Through all the chaos, the dinosaurs breath in Christmas and fully enjoy the excitement. Santa Claws himself even makes an appearance and hands out presents! The yuletide evening is full of caroling, and the dinosaurs end their raucous celebrations by looking forward to the next holiday and the fun tied to that event as well.

In a fun celebration of all things winter and Christmas, Lisa Wheeler makes dinosaurs come alive. By including scientific nomenclature, Wheeler not only enlivens young imaginations, but also instructs. When things get out of hand, as they sometimes do during celebrations, Santa Claws is there to maintain order and to remind children that, although having fun is appropriate and encouraged, it is well to remember how to behave and to make sure everyone is having a good time.

Author

Lisa Wheeler

Illustrator

Barry Gott

Reviewer

Sydnee Burr

Rating

Excellent

Level

Toddler, Preschool

Pages

30

Year

2018

Publisher

Carolrhoda Books

ISBN

9781512403152