This is Baby. Baby has a lot of different parts, like arms and legs. Those parts do a lot of different things, like hug and kiss. Baby can laugh and sing and play and do lots of things, but the most important thing about Baby is that Baby is loved.

Bold graphic illustrations done in saturated pastels with just a few words on each page describe everything about Baby. Exaggerated perspective with only a few elements on each page makes the baby and animal characters really stand out. The text has a pleasing rhythm that makes this a delightful read-aloud for caregivers of babies and toddlers.
