

Hoffen (Music Recording, Translation)

Poet: Curt Trützschler von Falkenstein

English Translation: Suzanne Nell

Composer: Luise Greger

After the fading moodn, the first warm wind of spring blows again

Pearls of dew twinkle, the earth smells sweet.

Life has won!

Life has won, for springtime, springtime begins again!

And once again the longing flame glows in me, humbly waiting for your soul.

Sureness lives, hope's leaves blossom.

Bliss is near!

Bliss is near, to be reunited with you once more.
