

Schliesse mir die Augen beide (baritone) (Music Recording, Translation)

Poet: Unknown

English Translation: Melanie Antuna

Composer: Luise Greger

Close both of my eyes with those beloved hands
With one touch, please quiet all of my suffering

And how softly my pain subsides, wave by wave
You fill my heart completely, until the last sad stroke resounds

Close both of my eyes with those beloved hands
With one touch, please quiet all of my suffering.
