Journal Submissions

The BYU Family Historian is an online academic journal published by the Center for Family History and Genealogy at Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah. Visit our Web site at http://familyhistory.byu.edu.

We would like to invite you to submit an article, book review, or CD-ROM review for this publication. We publish articles relating to family and local history, research techniques and procedures, descriptions of genealogical and historical records and collections of international scope, documented compiled genealogies, professionalism, and reviews.

We solicit articles on beginning genealogy as well as scholarly articles. Articles should include footnotes and be well documented. They will be peer reviewed. We follow The Chicago Manual of Style, 15th edition (Chicago, 2003).

If you are interested in submitting a manuscript, please:
- attach an electronic copy to your email in Microsoft Word to myself
- OR mail a PC floppy disk or PC zip disk or USB flash (jump) drive
- OR mail a paper copy of your manuscript

Images, including a description and source citation, are acceptable for publication. Copyright and liability responsibility for the article and images rests with the author. Including Internet links as they might relate to the article or review will also be helpful. We prefer previously unpublished material for publication. Be sure to include your e-mail and telephone number, and a short biography of yourself.

Thank you,
