Governments must recognize and respect the natural family, in much the same way, and for exactly the same reason, that they must recognize and respect basic human rights, since the natural family... constitutes a fundamental dimension of human flourishing....

—DAVID BLANKENHORN