First International Conference on Nonfiction

Taking Off with Nonfiction

It's the best kept secret of the eighties—nonfiction books are exciting. Rapidly shedding their drab past, recent nonfiction titles provide a gripping reading experience as well as offering facts and information. Current authors present new subjects and new treatments of old subjects, in a way that makes today's reader stand up and take notice.

Who Will Be There?
Vicki Cobb, author; Leonard Everett Fisher, author, illustrator; James Giblin, author, editor; Seymour Simon, author; Peter Usborne, publisher; and Beverly Kobrin, critic.

Inside Information: Taking Off with Nonfiction brings to you the latest and the best titles and techniques from nationally acclaimed authors, critics, and publishers.

Dates: June 18-22, 1984
Place: Wilkinson Center,
Brigham Young University
Provo, Utah

Participants of any race, creed, color, or ethnic or national origin and qualified handicapped persons are accepted for admission to the conference provided they maintain the university standards while on campus. These include abstinence from tobacco, alcohol, tea and coffee and harmful drugs, none of which is available on campus.
