Staff Bios

Sigma: Journal of Political and International Studies

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarsarchive.byu.edu/sigma

Recommended Citation

Available at: https://scholarsarchive.byu.edu/sigma/vol22/iss1/8
Staff Bios

Mark Champoux is from Lee's Summit, Missouri. He is a senior majoring in political science with a minor in business management. Mark is married to the former Jenny Johnson, and he will begin attending Harvard Law School in fall 2004.

Andrew Dale from Winchester, Virginia, will be graduating in August 2004 in international politics. He plans to attain a graduate degree in public policy, a JD, and a PhD without having to live on welfare.

Daniel W. Evans is a senior majoring in political science and psychology. He hopes to attend law school in the future and enjoys good books, lively arguments, and the cinema.

Elisabeth Guyon is a senior from Salt Lake City, Utah, majoring in English. She plans to edit while pursuing an advanced degree in English or law or both.

Christy Holt is a senior from Temple, Texas. She is majoring in economics with a minor in Spanish. She loves music and has participated in the BYU Women's Chorus. She will work for Crossroads Research when she graduates.

Jonathan Holt from St. Paul, Minnesota, is a senior majoring in economics with a minor in French. He is married to the former Christy Atwood and is planning on attending law school in the fall at the University of Minnesota.

Sarah E. Jenkins is a senior majoring in English with a minor in editing. This fall and winter she will be interning with BYU Magazine, while continuing her work with student journals.

Margo Larson hails from Plymouth, Minnesota, and graduated in international politics in April 2004. After graduation, Margo plans on marrying her long-time sweetheart and attending law school in the fall.

Gabriel Middleton is a junior, majoring in communications and minor in editing. He is from Las Vegas, Nevada, and plans on working as an advertising consultant after college. Gabriel served a mission in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

Megan Mitchell is an English major from Sterling, Virginia. She enjoys writing and hopes to pursue a career in editing.

Allyson Rice is a senior from New London, Ohio. She is majoring in English and history with a minor in editing. She plans on attending graduate school and would like to be a professor of literature.

Kirk L. Shaw is a senior from Taylorsville, Utah, majoring in English with a minor in editing. This summer he will be an intern for David Godine, a book publisher in Boston, which opportunity is the first big step for what he hopes is a successful career in book publishing. He has been married to the former Joy Simmons for two years this April.

Travis S. Smith is a senior from Blackfoot, Idaho, majoring in political science, with a minor in philosophy. He will begin graduate school next fall.

Jarod Stewart is a senior from Las Vegas, Nevada, majoring in political science. After graduation this summer he will take a year off and begin law school next fall.