Mormon Pacific Historical Society
Proceedings

Fifteenth Annual Conference
Mormon History In The Pacific
March 19, 1994
Waialua Chapel
Waialua, Oahu, Hawaii
Table of Contents

President's Message ....................................................... .v
Purposes of MPHS ........................................................... .vi
Executive Council ........................................................... .vi

Map of Major Land Division in Oahu ................................. 1
The Coming of Christianity to Waialua ............................... 2
The "Mormons" Come to Waialua ....................................... 3
Waialua War Cemetery ...................................................... 12
Waialua Ward Membership 1902-1912 ................................. 19
MPHS Conference-Waialua Ward, March 1994 ....................... 24

Henry Sin Kui Ah nee and Esther Kawaiola Takauya-Ah nee,
Family Organization, March 19, 1994 .............................. 27

David Grandy, Glass Balls as Artifacts and Archetypes ....... 31

Roy Kakulu Alameida, Aina Kaulana o Waialua ................. 38

Cynthia D. Woolley Compton and D. Chad Compton, "What Is Going on Here? Making Meaning of Life in a Global Information Society." ...................................................... 43

Grant Underwood, "Frontiers in Mormon Pacific History." .... 54
Purposes of MPHS

1. To encourage research and publication on topics relative to the history of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in the Pacific Basin area.

2. To maintain bibliographic and reference information relative to the history of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in the Pacific Basin area.

3. To gather in conferences and workshops to teach and to learn from each other about Latter-Day Saint history in the Pacific.

4. To teach those skills helpful in the gathering and recording of historical information.

Executive Council (1994-1995)

Merlin Waite, President (1995)
Lance Chase, Secretary-Treasurer (1997)
Cy Bridges (1995)
William Wallace (1995)
Mae Au (1996)
Glenn Lung (1996)
Dale Robertson (1996)
Francis Forsythe (1997)
Grant Underwood (1997)

Acknowledgment

The Mormon Pacific Historical Society wishes especially to thank the Brigham Young University-Hawaii Oral History Program directed by William Wallace III, Oral History student secretaries Puanani Sheldon, Noreen Orta and Aiko Terukina for its significant contribution to the publication of the MPHS Proceedings.