An Impressive Letter from the Pen of Joseph Smith

LAMAR C. BERRETT*

Because of rivalry and jealousy among the Missouri Saints, the Prophet Joseph Smith, Sidney Rigdon, and Newel K. Whitney were appointed to sit in council with them in April 1832. (D & C 78: 9-10.) This was the second visit by Joseph Smith to the Missouri area.

After grievances were amicably settled, the three brethren returned to Kirtland by stage via St. Louis and Vincennes, Indiana. At a point between Vincennes, Indiana, and New Albany (near Greenville) they had a run-away when the horses became frightened. Joseph and Sidney jumped out of the coach unhurt; but when Bishop Whitney attempted to jump, his coat caught and threw him into the wheel. His leg and foot were broken in several places. Joseph and Newel stayed at Mr. Porter’s Public House at Greenville for four weeks, and Elder Rigdon returned to Kirtland. While attending Brother Whitney as he recuperated from his injuries, Joseph Smith was poisoned. He vomited so profusely that he dislocated his jaw. He replaced it himself and then made his way to the bedside of Newel K. Whitney where Newel administered to him and he was healed instantly. The Prophet Joseph Smith indicated that the effect of the poison was so powerful it caused much of the hair of his head to be loosened. He was grateful to be alive, however, and said, “thanks be to my Heavenly Father for his interference.”

Sometime in the four weeks while Newel K. Whitney was bedfast, Joseph Smith wrote an intimate letter to his wife, Emma.¹ His impressive account of his struggle for repentance and his assurance of his own forgiveness is touching; it is one of the most authentic glimpses of the Prophet’s repentance and effort for worthiness.

Dear Hope,

I would inform you that Brother Martin has arrived here and brought the pleasing news that our families were well when he left them. Greatly, blessed, we hear and regard our spirits are thank and longingly they have for their good news to us and all of you. Martin arrived on Saturday the same week to left Chicago. During a prosperous time we are all in good health. Brother Martin, by as journeying and do they he shall be able to to fly future this journey it as to get home tomorrow. My situation is a very unpleasant one and although I will endeavor to be contented always I have written a grave and painting me. I have created a grave and painting me. I have created a grave and painting me. I have created a grave and painting me. I have created a grave and painting me. I have created a grave and painting me. I have created a grave and painting me. I have created a grave and painting me. I have created a grave and painting me. I have created a grave and painting me. I have created a grave and painting me. I have created a grave and painting me. I have created a grave and painting me. I have created a grave and painting me. I have created a grave and painting me. I have created a grave and painting me. I have created a grave and painting me. and has forgiven my Sins and I rejoice that he Sendeth forth the Comforter unto as many as believe and humbleth themselves before him lost
I was grieved to hear that Hiram had his little Child I think we Can in Some degree Sympathise with him but we all must be of the Lord reconciled to our lots and say the will be done her husband
Sister Whitney wrote a letter to which was very cheer to and being unwell at that time and filled with much anxiety
it would have been very Consal to me to have received a few lines from you but as you did not take the trouble I will try to be contented with my lot knowing that God is my friend in him I shall find comfort I have given my life into his hands I am prepared to go at his Call I desire to be with Christ I Count not my life dear to me only to do his will I am not pleased to hear that William Mclelin has come back and disobayed the voice of him who is altogether Lovely for a woman I am astonished at Sister Emaline yet I cannot believe she is not a worthy sister I hope She find will him true and kind to her but have no reason to expect it his Conduct merits the disapprobation of every true follower of Christ

LETTER FROM JOSEPH SMITH

But this is a painful subject & hope you will receive my regards on mentioning this subject & also my inability in conveying my ideas in writing. I am happy to find that you are still in the faith of Christ and at Father Smith I hope you will comfort Staten and Andrew in their trials and also your friend and the rest of the family. Let me know I remember her and the rest in my prayers, my respects to the rest. I should like to see little Julia and once more to the rest on my knees and wish you all the subjects who concern us things that cannot be written. I omit all the important things which could I see you I could make you acquainted with till Brother Wellby that I and Brother Whitney will arrange the business of this firm when we come from New York. My respects to all the Brothers. Brother Wellby is a true Brother to me & a true Brother to me & a true Brother to the Lord, he is myself your husband, the Lord says you place be with us. Farewell until I return.
