As heretofore, Brigham Young University Studies is to be a voice for the community of Latter-day Saint Scholars. Contributions dealing with LDS thought, history, theology, and related subjects will receive first priority.

BYU Studies is a serious venture into the study of the correlation of revealed and discovered truth. Dedicated to the conviction that the spiritual and the intellectual are complementary avenues of knowledge, BYU Studies welcomes articles from all fields of learning. They should be written for the informed nonspecialist rather than the specialized reader in the technical language of the field. Creative work—poetry, short fiction, drama—are also welcomed.

Except for unusual cases, contributions should not exceed 4,000 words (approximately 15 double-spaced, typewritten pages.) Manuscripts should conform to the University of Chicago Press Manual of Style, and footnotes should be placed on a separate page at the end of the article.

Each author will receive 20 off-prints and three copies of the number in which his contribution appears.

Send manuscripts to Dr. Charles D. Tate, Jr., Editor, Brigham Young University Studies, A-283 JKB, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah 84601.

SPECIAL BACK ISSUE of BYU Studies, Vol. 9, No. 3, Spring 1969, is available at $2.50 per copy. This popular, well-received issue, dealing with investigations of the origins of the Church, was guest edited by The Institute of Mormon Studies, Dr. Truman G. Madsen, Director. Order from Brigham Young University, Publication Sales Department, 205 UPB, Provo, Utah 84601.
