Editors
Rachel E. Crook Lyon, PhD
Brigham Young University

Associate Editors
John M. Rector, PhD
Brigham Young University–Idaho
Lane Fischer, PhD
Brigham Young University

Consulting Editor
Sharon J. Black, MA
Brigham Young University

Editorial Board
Susan L. Ericksen, RN, MS, LMFT
Salt Lake City, Utah
S. Brent Schramm, PhD
LDS Family Services

Melissa K. Graves Jones, PhD
Utah State University
Ruas Seigengberg, PhD
Logan, Utah

Michael D. Howard, EdD
Brigham Young University
Thomas D. Sery, MSW
Taylorsville, Utah

Ronald W. Jacques, EdD
Jacksonville, North Carolina
Marlyn J. Simpson, PsyD
Pepperdine University

Ian S. Kellem, PhD
Brigham Young University–Idaho
Marleen Williams, PhD
Brigham Young University

R. Scott Richards, PhD
Brigham Young University
Eibon S. Strodl, PhD
Queensland University of Technology

Michael Adams, PhD
Brigham Young University
Wendy Ulrich, PhD
Alpine, Utah

The Mission of the Association of Mormon Counselors and Psychotherapists

Issues in Religion and Psychotherapy is published biannually by the Association of Mormon Counselors and Psychotherapists and is archived at http://www.amcap.net. Subscription prices are $35.00 per year for members (paid as part of Association dues). Single issues are available for $20.00. Subscriptions and changes of address should be emailed to mail@ldsamcap.net.

The Association of Mormon Counselors and Psychotherapists

Lili D. Anderson, PhD, LCSW – President
Lisa M. Leavitt, PhD – Vice-President
Rod W. Jeffppen, MC, LPC, CSAT – Treasurer

The Mission of the Association of Mormon Counselors and Psychotherapists is to provide information and support for the LDS mental health professional.