Editor:

Richard Cracroft's review of the "Special Issue on Peace," Dialogue: A Journal of Mormon Thought 17 (Winter 1984), indicated that Dialogue is behind in its publishing schedule. Since 1983 Dialogue has appeared regularly and on time. Dr. Cracroft may have been a bit confused because the Winter 1984 issue, to which he referred, was mailed in early January of 1985. The seasonal schedule for winter, however, includes December, January, and February. Subscribers now regularly receive their Dialogue issues in March, June, September, and December of each year.

Brigham Young University Studies is a quarterly journal dedicated to the correlation of revealed and discovered truth and to the conviction that the spiritual and intellectual are complementary avenues of knowledge. Contributions from all fields of learning are welcome. Articles should reflect a Latter-day Saint point of view while at the same time conforming to high scholarly standards, and they should be written for the informed nonspecialist. Quality fiction, poetry, drama, and personal essays are also welcome.

Contributions should not exceed five thousand words in length. Manuscripts must be typed, double-spaced, and should conform to the latest edition of The Chicago Manual of Style. They should be submitted in duplicate, with stamped and self-addressed envelope.

Each author will receive complimentary offprints and complete copies of the issue in which his or her contribution appears.
