Ammon’s Rehearsal

Ammon said unto him:

a I am a man; and man in the beginning was created after the image of God, b and I am called by his Holy Spirit to teach these things unto this people, c that they may be brought to a knowledge

d of that which is just and true;

b and a portion of that Spirit dwelleth in me,

c which giveth me knowledge, and also power

d according to my faith and desires a which are in God.

Now when Ammon had said these words,

e he began at the creation of the world, and also the creation of Adam,

f and told him all the things concerning the fall of man, g and rehearsed and laid before him the records and the holy scriptures of the people, b which had been spoken by the prophets, even down to the time that their father, Lebi, left Jerusalem.

i And he also rehearsed unto them all the journeyings of their fathers in the wilderness, and all their sufferings with hunger and thirst, and their travail, and so forth.

i And he also rehearsed unto them concerning the rebellions of Laman and Lemuel, and the sons of Ishmael, yea, all their rebellions did he relate unto them;

b and he expounded unto them all the records and scriptures from the time that Lebi left Jerusalem down to the present time.

f But this is not all; for he expounded unto them the plan of redemption, e which was prepared from the foundation of the world;

a and he also made known unto them a concerning the coming of Christ, a and all the works of the Lord

a and he make known unto them.
